- Four workstations + Instructor Station (taking turns making and tasting)
- Practical from the very beginning (you will be making your own drinks)
- We stock hundreds of spirits, throughout the class we will show you how to improvise the drinks you make to your taste, or to the ingredients you have at home
- Our mixologists invite questions... there is not much they can't answer!

Course Content...

- You will be given or you will make, after demonstration, your first cocktail
- Introduction to your workstation and equipment.
- Discussion of the planned cocktail list
- Throwing away the plan
- Second Cocktail Demo and tasting (Cosmo, Mojito or whatever you happen prefer)
- Second Cocktail practical (the brave ones step forward in front of everyone to begin creating)
- Critique of the cocktails with improvement suggestions.
- We stay making this one until everyone who would like one, has one
- Third Cocktail Demo & Practical
- Finishing up with a Layered Shot/Shooter Demo & Practical.

Some of the Cocktails from previous classes...

Mojito, Margarita, Cosmopolitan, Snowflake (Belfry Original), Martinis (Original, Chocolate, Orange, Mint etc.), Cuna Libre, Tequila Sunrise, Black & White Russians, Long Island Iced Teas, Tom Collins, Sex on the Beach, After 8, Mint Julips ..... and on and on and on....

We are around a long time now, every class is different and each one of our mixologists can tailor courses to suit the personalities of the groups involved. This makes a class at the Belfry a unique and fun experience.
